A MESSAGE FROM YOUR MFN TEAM

As the dog days of summer come to an end and autumn closes in on the horizon, we begin to feel a sense of urgency for summer projects left undone and the clear knowing that as the new school year begins and the holiday seasons unfold, that our lives will become busier and our time more treasured.

How different from only weeks ago!

When spring approaches, with its newness and hope, we are energized and inspired to think big thoughts with confident can-do attitudes: "Sure, I'll clean out that garage and attic! Yes, I'm tackling that family photo project! You bet it'll be my best garden ever!" "Second language? No problem!"

And, it's all going to happen this summer.

But fall, always serious and overshadowing, seems to sneak up on us with a rush of duty, leaving us scrambling to tie up matters, finish projects, "store away our acorns for the winter" and get the kids in bed on time.

Then, more quickly than the blink of an eye, August comes rolling around and reality sets in. It's a sobering moment: "Where has all the time gone?"

No doubt about it: August is a transitioning month. But if we stop there, we miss out on some very important gifts that this month has to offer.

August gives us an opportunity to review and reflect about our summer accomplishments and our memories of recent vacations - far from home, close to home, across the street in the neighbor's pool, or just hanging out watching glorious sun sets. We get a rare moment to catch a glimpse of ourselves enjoying our lives and the people we have in those lives. And, if we're fortunate enough to step out of the moment, we can let that vision settle in slowly, warmly to the backs of our mind to be plucked later, for daydreaming, during winter's deep chill.

So then, as the world prepares for back to school and the bustling holiday months ahead, let's rest here a bit to enjoy this feeling of ease and satisfaction. We're in no hurry today.

Until Next Month (or you can email us at connections@MilitaryFamilyNetwork.com if you just can't wait!),

Megan, Luis and Darrell

BUSINESS FEATURE

MFN Helps Businesses Reach Military Families

We all know how the Military Family Network serves military service members, veterans, and their families by providing resources, information and trusted expert and community advice to help them navigate through military life.

But did you know that MFN also helps businesses with their outreach as well? By introducing the military community to trusted businesses, MFN can help you tap into a market that is traditionally hard to reach, but desires your services. And with our new website nearly ready to go, we will offer even more possibilities, both for businesses and the community we serve.

For military and family friendly businesses, we offer a variety of communication services that allow you to promote your programs, products and services while demonstrating your support for our military service members, veterans and their families. MFN encourages its business partners to offer military deals and discounts as their way of thanking our military community for their service to our nation. And, while MFN can provide the sophisticated marketing reports that you've come to expect from your campaigns, your biggest reward will come from knowing that your advertising dollars are taking care of military service members, veterans and their families. In fact, your support saves lives.

For our military community, there are numerous new features to look forward to like improved and simplified navigation, enhanced forums, the ability to add your own blog, and a dedicated server giving MFN much more bandwidth and processing power to provide you with a greatly improved user experience.

You've already seen the ever increasing number of experts in various fields who are coming on board with MFN to give you the information you need. Now, enhanced search and tagging capabilities will make it easier for you to find this information.

And there is so much more. How many times have you read one of our news articles and wanted to respond? Or perhaps you saw an informational piece on our site, and wanted to contribute your own knowledge and experience? Well, now you will be able to! You will be able to leave comments, discuss topics with your fellow community members, easily syndicate the content to your RSS feeds, and a few surprises that, well, our lips are sealed!

So as they say in show-biz: Don't Go Away! There's More to Come!

ORGANIZATION IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Meet K12!

K 12 is the largest provider of online education in America for grades K through 12. We all know how often many of our military families are required to move. K12 is a way for those families to have a consistent educational experience, year after year. In fact, no matter where you are in the world, as long as you have an internet connection, K 12 can give your children a high quality, American education.

NEWS YOU CAN USE

"Wow, you really drew that?"

The Wounded Artist Project

The Wounded Artist Project is sending art kits (currently our Beginner kits) to war wounded, ill and injured, and their caregivers (parents, spouses, etc.), recovering in military medical facilities or at home across the US. This includes also PTSD and TBI.

While art is recognized as a good method to pull out trauma in a person's life, we will be focusing on having the wounded develop art skills that may lead them to deciding on a college major or career. We have a YouTube channel with introductory art instruction videos for anyone to access.

We imagine that someone who does a lot of perspective drawing may decide to become an architect or urban planner; those drawing the human body (especially after following their own charts and operations) may become a medical or scientific illustrator, a nurse or even a physiologist; those drawing cars and mechanical stuff may go into product design. We stress that the kits alone don't make someone become an architect or an MD; they still face a lot of work ahead of them.

We are sure that someone, someday will look over the shoulder a wounded GI sitting in a hospital bed using one of our kits, and ask, "Wow, you really drew that?"

Contact ray@thewoundedartistproject.org for more details and to volunteer.

How You Can Help: The Wounded Artist Project is a Michigan-based 501(c)(3) nonprofit that sends art kits to war wounded recovering in military hospitals. We are in start-up mode and need funding and/or donations. They are tax-deductible. It costs us approximately $25 to produce one BEGINNER's kit. Visit The Wounded Artist Project website to support our wounded service members or to request additional information about how you can help: this link is just a click away!

U.S. Army Soldiers preserve the freedoms we enjoy today.

Historical accounts, taken directly from Soldiers' letters and diaries, provide the story line for this powerful drama, designed to entertain while presenting the history and development of the U.S. Army from its origins through the wars, conflicts and missions that have molded the Army and the nation.

Spirit of America is truly an unforgettable experience that for more than 30 years has taken thousands of audience members through an action-packed timeline of American history. As you witness breathtaking ceremonial drills, historical reenactments, soul-stirring music and dramatic real life stories, Spirit of America shows how the Army's history is also our nation's history. This year we honor the sacrifices and celebrate the contributions of our Soldiers, Families, and Army Civilians who are making a difference during one of the most challenging times in our Nation's history. Their perseverance and resiliency is the Strength of the Nation.

Spirit of America is one of the U.S. Army's largest community outreach events. Since its inception, hundreds of thousands of people have experienced the patriotic pageant.

Deadline to Opt-in for Overdraft Protection

[Source: Federal Citizen Information Center]

Take action now if you want to keep your debit or ATM card's overdraft protection in place, without interruption. If you don't "opt-in" by Aug. 14th, your overdraft protection will be discontinued.

The good news is, you won't unwittingly get socked with steep overdraft fees. The bad news is, your purchases and ATM withdrawals that exceed your checking account balance will be denied.

The new rules do not apply to checks or automatic bill payments.

If you've linked your account to a line of credit or a savings account to cover overdrafts, that arrangement will not be affected. You can opt-in or opt-out of overdraft protection at any time.

Of course, the best way to avoid overdraft fees is to manage your account so you don't overdraw it. To learn more about managing our money, check out these sites:
